

TBE In The News

As we navigate an era of significant growth and change, our community continues to be a subject of interest in the wider Jewish world. We are writing to you today to share some recent press coverage that reflects the thoughtful, strategic work happening in our congregation.

At the heart of our mission is a commitment to Temple Beth-El. We are constantly evolving to ensure that every decision we make serves the best interests of our members and secures a strong, sustainable future for our congregation.

We invite you to read two recent pieces that capture the spirit of our resilience and innovation:

1. A Message from Our President

In a recent letter to the editor at The Forward, our President highlights how our pioneering Reform synagogue remains as vibrant and dedicated as ever, even as our landscape shifts. Read the President's Response Here

2. Innovation in Action

Religion News Service recently published a deep dive into our recent transitions, framing our story as a prime example of the "Jewish innovation" the modern world needs. Read the Full Article Here

While the greater community and local reporting can sometimes miss the nuance of our community's heart, these pieces reflect the reality we see every day: a community that is brave enough to change and strong enough to thrive.

Thank you for being part of this journey. Your support is what makes our "strong future" possible.

Shabbat Shalom!
